New products

November sees the release of a number of new products.

First up are two UltraPro folders for card storage. Each folder can store 360 cards and will cost around £18 or less online

Also available will be a Pokémon Collectors Chest tin which will cost around £20 but may be cheaper online.

Each tin will contain 5 booster packs (probably from different sets), 3 foil preview cards (Treecko, Torchic and Mudkip), coin, sticker sheets, mini album, notepad and pencils. Could be great for carrying around your deck and dice.

Omega Ruby and Alpha Sapphire

Nintendo will be releasing Omega Ruby and Alpha Sapphire for the 3DS and 2DS in the UK on 28 November.
